

Spend with ExtremePie.com and earn a reward

Here at ExtremePie.com we want to reward your loyalty for spending with us by providing you with a reward voucher everytime you reach certain spending levels.

Our New Scheme offers you a much better return than even the most popular high street loyalty card scheme offering you nearly twice as much value for money

We'll be starting this on 1st September 2009 and back dating it to include all of your orders placed in the month of August 2009. Once you've spent £100 with us we'll send you a £5 reward voucher by email, get to a £200 spend and we'll send you a £10 reward voucher. Once you've spent over £200 and received your £10 reward voucher we'll reset your balance and you'll be on your way to earning your next reward voucher.

Each order you place with us will be added to your total spend 14 days after the order has been dispatched. We'll check your total spend on a weekly basis and send out your voucher once its due.

Don't Worry you don't have to do anything to start collecting your spend a reward bonus- we will do all the leg work for you
